

As a subscriber to XM Satellite Radio I am concerned that they would be restricted from providing local content. I have made a choice to subscribe because the local station did not provide programing I found entertaining. XM should be able to provide any programing its subscribers would like to have.